

VACANCY

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Non-Communicable Diseases Alliance Kenya (NCD Alliance Kenya) is the leading national civil society umbrella organization coordinating efforts to prevent and control non-communicable diseases (NCDs) in Kenya. Working closely with government, development partners, academia, professional associations, and communities, NCD Alliance Kenya plays a pivotal role in influencing policy, strengthening accountability, and advancing multi-sectoral action on NCDs.

NCD Alliance Kenya seeks to appoint a visionary, results-driven Executive Director to provide strategic, operational, and institutional leadership and to position the Alliance as a strong national voice in health advocacy.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide overall strategic leadership and ensure effective implementation of NCD Alliance Kenya's Strategic Plan.
- Lead national policy engagement and advocacy initiatives on NCD prevention and control.
- Strengthen governance systems, accountability, and institutional sustainability.
- Drive resource mobilization and oversee sound financial management.
- Build and maintain strong partnerships with government, development partners, and civil society actors.

Qualifications and Experience

- Minimum Master's degree with several years of post-qualifications at a senior management level. (A PHD would be an added advantage.)
- Registration with a relevant professional body where applicable.
- At least 15 years of progressive professional experience with demonstrated leadership responsibility.
- Experience in health sector programming, policy engagement, or health systems strengthening.
- Proven stakeholder engagement, partnership development, and financial oversight experience.
- Strong understanding of Kenya's health system and NCD policy landscape.

Application Process

Qualified and interested candidates should submit a cover letter, detailed curriculum vitae, and contacts of three professional referees to: recruitment@immadvocates.com

Application Deadline: 20th March 2026.
